From the statements placed below, it will be seen that a good number of Assistant Comrs have very little experience as Magistrates some of them are likely to get District charges within a few years and unless steps are taken betimes they will ~~have accepted by want of magisterial experience~~ find themselves called upon to discharge the duties of a District Magistrate without adequate preparation

Messrs M. Seshadri V. Vedavyasachar & Gundappa Rao have recently been posted as Magistrates

The cases of the following officers may now be considered

1) Sri M Venkatesa Iyengar

Orders may issue sanctioning the first series of arrangements. The Dy. Comm. Chittoor might make temporary arrangements for the charge of the Magisterial work until Mr. P. N. Krishna Rao joins.

As regards the second series, Mr. Anantaraman, Dy. Comm. Nellore states that the transfers may be deferred for a few months as Mr. Venkatasa Iyengar's services are required for the development of the Yddatore Town Extension and the schemes in which he has taken keen interest.

I agree that the second series of arrangements might be kept in abeyance for the present. I do not think it possible for Mr. Chitaley to make any other arrangements for the Asst. Magistrate's work. I think Mr. Ananakanath must hold charge of Chittoor till he is relieved by Mr. Krishna Rao

No. 1123 d. 5.3.29
Requests that the transfer of Mr. V. Dwarakanath from Chitaldrug may be deferred by 2 or 3 months so as to enable him to dispose of certain partly heard cases.

The Chief Court have quoted two references ~~to cases~~ in support of the view that they have to be consulted in the matter of transfers of Magistrates of First class. These are put up. (Mr. P. H. Krishna Rao's leave expires by 8.3.29 & he must be under joining duties now)

Submitted C/S 11/3/29

There are only 13 part heard cases on which three seem to be of a petty character while four or five are sessions cases in which the question of a de novo enquiry is not likely to arise. While such is the state of business, a change of Magistrate, it is submitted, can lead to no special inconvenience. And it is not easy to imagine how matters will be different a couple of months hence, when according to the Chief Court, the change might be effected.

As regards the Government Orders quoted in the paper under disposal, they seem to have no bearing on the point raised. The first of these Government Orders merely says that separate orders would be passed about the recruitment of Special Magistrates, a class of officers no longer in existence. The second Government Order relates to the interpretation of the provisions of the Civil Courts Regulation regarding relating to the appointment and transfer of Munsiffs.

Except in cases of doubt, it has not been usual to consult the Chief Court or the Head of the Department (other than the Revenue Commissioner) in regard to the transfer of Assistant Commissioners. And in practice such consultation generally elicits conflicting recommendations which involve protracted correspondence in order to ensure agreement among the various Heads of Departments concerned.

It is a point for consideration if any change is to be made in the present procedure.

My dear Madhava Rao,

In one of my previous letters I have suggested the posting of Mr.P.H.Krishna Rao as Personal Assistant to the Deputy-Commissioner (Bangalore) in case Mr.A.J.Donne is taken to the Military Department. I understand that it is the idea of Government to post Mr. Krishna Rao as a Magistrate so that he might acquire some training in the Judicial Department He may therefore be posted as 1st Class Magistrate, Chitaldrug and Mr.V.Dwaraknath as Personal Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner (Bangalore)

Sir,

I am directed to invite reference to Government Notification No.3872/Cts.7-28-25 dated 27th February 1929, transferring Mr. V. Dwarakanath, First Class Magistrate, Chittaldrug, as personal Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, with effect from the date of expiry of Mr. P.H. Krishna Rao's present leave and to forward a statement of criminal cases pending in the First Class Magistrate's Court, Chitaldrug, on 1-3-1929 from which it will be seen that there are at present 13 part-heard cases which may be disposed of in the course of two or three months more, if the present incumbent continues to be in charge.

I am therefore to request that with a view to avoid denovo trials in these cases and consequential delay in their disposal, Government may be pleased to order Mr.V.Dwarakanath to continue to preside over the said First Class Magistrate's Court, Chittaldrug, for at least 2 or 3 months to come so as to enable him to dispose of these cases.

I

I am also to invite reference to the last para of Part I of G.O.No.G.7962-69/Cts.27-18-3 dated 1-11-1918 under which appointments as First Class Magistrates will be made by Government in consultation with the Chief Court from time to time as vacancies occur, and to the view of Government that a transfer amounts to an appointment (Vide G.O.No.1446/C.B.291-22-9 dated 22-12-1924) and to request that Government may with advantage consult the Chief Court in the case of the transfer of all Magistrates so as to avoid denovo trials in part-heard cases, as far as practicable.

Government regret that it is not possible at present to defer his posting for 2 or 3 months, as proposed, and trust that as there are only 13 part-heard cases, their disposal by the new Magistrate will not be unduly delayed.

Referring to the second paragraph of your letter, I am to observe that the Government orders therein quoted do not refer to the transfer of Assistant Commissioners from revenue to magisterial work but Government recognise that it would be an advantage to consult the Chief Court in regard to such proposals and they would be glad to do so, in future, as far as practicable
